The deadline for reserving rooms in Gatlinburg for our 2008 NALF reunion is fast approaching. Be sure to secure your spot by calling 865-277-8611 or 800-362-9522 to make reservations. You must mention "Lively Family Reunion" to get the group rate of $99.00 per night for up to four adults in a room. There are deluxe rooms also available for a higher rate. This rate is good until June 27, so be sure to call SOON!

The reunion will be held at the lovely Glenstone Lodge in Gatlinburg, TN, hosted by NALF president John Lively. The lodge is located in a beautiful mountain setting near a sparkling stream in the heart of Gatlinburg.

If you've never been to Gatlinburg, what a perfect opportunity to be introduced to this "lively" town. There are over 500 shops and five malls, dozens of amusements for the kids, and a variety of museums. See the article below for specific information on the attractions, and join us July 18-20th for some "Lively" fun!

What's There to do in Gatlinburg?

Last summer, at the NALF reunion in Virginia, my sister was incredulous when I told her I'd never been to Gatlinburg. "Never been!" she cried. "How can you live in the south 40-odd years and never visit Gatlinburg?" She then proceeded to tell me of all the wonderful attractions in store for us this summer at the reunion. I must say, I was astonished at the variety.

Nestled in the midst of the Great Smoky Mountains, you can take a hike in the National Park or go whitewater rafting down the Big Pigeon. Or bring your bike and travel through the Cades Cove loop at the National Park.

If you're more the indoor type, there are numerous museums, such as the Hollywood Stars Car Museum, the Salt and Pepper Shaker Museum, a Hollywood Wax Museum, and a Guinness World of Records museum. The shopping features many village-styled stores that are reminiscent of old days. Speaking of history, there's plenty of it here. Settled in the early 1800's, Gatlinburg was dubbed the "Land of Paradise" by many of its early founders. You can visit several historical sites to learn more of its history.

The kids will enjoy the amusement parks and other kid-friendly sites. There's a world-class aquarium, several "haunted" attractions, a Ripley's Moving Theatre and World of Illusions.

There are just too many fun things to list! Join us in July and see for yourself!

In Condolence. . .

Claire Louden:

Claire Louden, 95, Scottsdate, Ariz., died Friday, Oct 26, 2007. Claire Christine was born Feb. 24, 1912, near Brookfield, MS. She was the daughter of Truman and Lenora (Read) Humphries and the granddaughter of the late Martha Lively Humphries. In 1937, she married Earl Bob Louden. She received bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Kirksville (MS) State Teacher's College (currently known as Truman State University) and taught for 30 years until her retirement in 1977. She attended many NALF reunions in the 1970's and 1980's and served as a genealogist.

She is survived by her daughter, Sonja Shelton, Rochester, NY; one son, Robert Bouden, Kingman, AZ, two grandsons and five great-grandchildren.

Gladys Barefield Stone:

Gladys Barefield Stone, 73, of Augusta, GA, died March 2, 2008 after an extended illness. Gladys was a native of Burke County, GA, born January 1, 1935, the daughter of Roger E. and Evelyn Lively Barefield. She retired as a medical secretary from Tyndall Air Force Base near Panama City, FL. For many years, she was a faithful member of First Baptist Church of Augusta (GA) and was a member of the choir. She was a faithful attendee of the NALF reunions.

She is survived by three brothers, Jimmie Barefield (Sally); Al Barefield (Billie); and Johnny Barefield (Sherrie); and two sisters, Joyce B. Hayes (Durwood); and Elizabeth B. Gossett (Scott), all of Waynesboro, GA.

Information Requested!

Several folks have written for information concerning genealogy, so I've included there requests here. If you have answers for them, please respond!

From Teresa Bennett Whelan: I am descended from Joseph Vincent Lively, through Lenoria Lively, who married Amos O. Bennett. They were the grandparents of my father James Paul Bennett of Staunton, Virginia (married to Ella Mae Callison Bennett). I have the 2 volumes of the Lively books and I have tapped into your web site, and was wondering if you could point me to any more sources to help me along. Also, if you need information from me on our branch, I'd be glad to provide it if I knew what might interest you. Email:

Tabwhelan@Hotmail.com

From Debra Joyal MacDonald: I think I am descended from Reuben Lively but would like confirmation.

My great-great grandfather was Bartholomew Riley. He married Elizabeth Lively. My great grandfather was Bartholomew Riley, who married Catherine Colton. My grandma was Mary Emmeline Riley, born March 31, 1985 in Johnville, New Brunswick.

Grandma married Alvin Joyal. Thanks for any information.

I would love to meet some of my grandma's relatives. Contact:
Phone: 250.870.2695
Email:
debra@joyal.ca

From Martha Len Nelson (Denton, TX):

On my mother's side of the family, I am descended from the line of James Lively, through Matthew, then Patrick Henry, who moved from Warren county, KY., to Dallas, TX, and at one time, was a large land holder.

I have attended two Lively family reunions: with my aunt, who is now 99 years young. I would like to correspond with any other descendants from the James Lively line.

e-mail Martha at:

mlnelson29@verizon.net.

From Mary H. Lively: My husband,

Jeff Thomas Lively, is a descendant of Squire Gosnell Lively and Nancy Bray Lively, from near McDaniels, KY. Squire came to the US as a child, but no one seems to know about his parents.

A Note from the Editor:

It has been a hectic time in the Smith household this school year, so I apologize for the delay in getting out this edition of the newsletter. As the mother of three teenagers and wife of a newly retired husband, I never know if I'm coming or going (and, usually, I seem to be going SOMEWHERE.) Perhaps that explains the major goof in the last newsletter. So, here I'd like to offer a correction and a LOUD apology!

Keep the news coming!

CORRECTION:

Last edition's birth announcement for

Garrison Cain Brown contained several errors. Here is the corrected announcement:

Garrison Cain Brown was born April 3, 2007, to Leah Brown. Grandmother is Sondra Bailey. He was welcomed home by big sister, Kailen.

Thanks to all of you who have written to me with news and info from your corner. Besides the information requests on page 3, I also heard from Geraldine (Gerry) Lively, who responded to a tidbit about Truitt Lively, and his work with Michael Guido. Turns out Truitt is her brother! He's listed on page 925 of the 1972 supplement.

Speaking of the Lively books, President John Lively will discuss the upcoming electronic format at the Reunion in Gatlinburg.
